

Screenplay Submission Now Available

Nightshade Studios is happy to announce the launching of our Screenplay Submission Form.

Screenplay Submission is available for consideration submissions with Coverage Service Submissions to be available soon.

Consideration scripts need to be in PDF format and make sure they're ready for submission. With the volume of submissions, we are not able to spend time with materials that are ill prepared.

If you're not sure if your script is ready for consideration and you want help getting passed the gatekeepers then we highly recommend utilizing our screenplay coverage service. You can learn more about this service by following the menu options under "Writers".
